SANTA TO BE IN SHANTY ON SQUARE DAILY

Santa Claus will be in "Santy's Shanty" on Lincoln Square each evening until Christmas, with the exception of Sundays, Barton Hoppe reported at Thursday night's meeting of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for Santa call for him to greet children at the Shanty each evening except Sundays during the afternoons Saturdays up until Saturday, December 23.

Hoppe also asked youngsters who want a personal letter from Santa to write him and place the letter in the letter box on the front of the Shanty on the square. If the child's name and address are in his letter to Santa, the Jaycees will see that Santa writes back to the child. The earlier the letters are received the more guarantee there is that the letter will be answered prior to Christmas, Hoppe said.

John Guise outlined plans for the annual Christmas party to be held for the Jaycees and their families. The party will be held Friday, December 22, with a party for the children at the Country Club at 6:30 p.m. and the party for the adults starting there at 9:30 p.m.

James Krum announced a December 15 deadline for nominations for the Distinguished Youth Award to be given by the Jaycees in January. He said notice of the event has been sent to 22 organizations dealing with youth in the area and so far eight nominations have been received. He reported he is hopeful of having at least 22 nominations by December 15. Those interested in nominating high school age boys and girls for the award should write him.

County Farm Agent Frank Zettie and Wesley Kreible presented a program on community planning at the meeting.

Speaking on land uses, they outlined population trends in the area, noted the use of zoning, planning, codes and subdivision controls in various areas of the state and elsewhere to solve problems caused by population increases, discussed briefly the plans for development of water resource in the Potomac watershed area and in relation to the new Route 15 to be built around Gettysburg, reported that generally where such "bypasses" have come into existence "the town grows out to the bypass" along the arteries leading from the bypass to the community it serves.

President Robert Weiland presided at the meeting.

AHA Board Meets Here

The board of directors of the American Heart Association is holding its annual meeting in the Hotel Gettysburg Press Room today and Saturday and former President Eisenhower, honorary chairman of the board, is expected to speak to the group briefly Saturday morning.

Executive Director Rome Yetts said that this afternoon will be devoted to orientation for new members and guests, and a group discussion will be held on all problems of interest between the staff and officers and board members.

On Saturday's agenda, committee reports will be given and appropriate action taken, Betts said. At the luncheon, six merit awards will be presented to members for outstanding service over the years.

Also slated for Saturday is election of the chairman of the board, the secretary and the executive and finance committees.

About 90 of the 120 board members are attending plus nearly 40 staff members and guests from nearby states.

U.S. Warns Asian Allies Of Red Threat To Seize Asia Through S. Viet Nam

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States warned its Asian allies in an official report published today that war-torn South Viet Nam is threatened by "clear and present danger" of Communist conquest.

The State Department "White Paper" also warned that if South Viet Nam and neighboring countries fall to the Reds the power balance in Asia will be "tipped perilously" against the non-Communist countries.

The paper, a 53-page booklet with 102 pages of supporting documents, mostly captured from Communist soldiers, constituted a rallying cry by the United States for Allies and neutral nations alike to face up to the danger of an expanding Red military effort in Southeast Asia and to get ready to help resist it as may be necessary.

The warehouse, located opposite the church on the Biglerville Rd., houses materials on hand for instant use in event of a disaster or need. An illustrated talk will be given on what has already been done jointly with other organizations and with the help of individuals of the area. Refreshments will be served.

Sunday evening at 8:05 the youth of the church, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wagner, will present a Christmas drama, "Christmas in the Cobbler Shop," by Mrs. O. G. Herbrecht.

Concluding the special holiday services will be a New Year's Eve watch party Sunday, December 31, from 8 p.m. until 11:30. Included on the program will be recreation, a full-length movie and refreshments. A worship period will follow the party.

The public is invited to all services.

P.O. TO HIRE EIGHT EXTRAS

Eight extra employees will be employed by Postmaster Charles W. Pentz to assist with the delivery of Christmas mail, instead of 13 as was employed last year, it was announced today by the postmaster.

Six of the new force will be assistant carriers and two will be assistant clerks. They will probably be employed Dec. 18 and conclude their work Dec. 23.

Forty-two names of civil service personnel accredited to this office have been certified to the local postmaster from which he will select the extra men. Veterans will be given preference on a ten percent basis. Pentz said that 12 of the 42 have said they would accept the brief employment.

This year there will be one delivery a day in the residential areas, instead of two as was done a year ago. There will be two deliveries a day in the business district.

"Deliveries in the residential area will be a little later than prevails now," Pentz said. "However, all mail will be expedited just as quickly as possible."

"There will be window service at the post office until 4 p.m. on the next two Saturdays, Dec. 9 and 16," the postmaster said.

LARGE RED FORCE

The report put the number of Viet Cong (Communist) forces seeking the overthrow of the South Vietnamese government at 8,000 to 9,000 elite fighting men organized in about 30 battalions with an additional 8,000 or more troops operating under Viet Cong officers in local areas of South Viet Nam. Furthermore, the report bring pressure on the International Control Commission, originally set up to supervise the 1954 peace agreement in Southeast Asia, to take action on a huge file of charges by the South Viet Nam government against the Reds. These charges cover assassination, kidnapping, infiltration of armed forces from Communist North Viet Nam and various other forms of what the White Paper calls "covert aggression."

India is chairman of the three-nation commission of which Poland and Canada are the other members.

NAME MASTER FOR DIVORCE

Atty. Oscar Franklin Spicer was appointed by the Adams County court Thursday master in the divorce action brought by Audrey N. (Gochenauer) Dunlap against Ivan A. Dunlap.

The court appointed Vernon Weed of Walla Walla, Wash., guardian for his 12-year-old daughter, Carolyn Weed, in the action to partition real estate brought by Preston J. Baumgardner and Bessie A. Trimmer against Sarah E. Baumgardner, and her children and their heirs and assigns. The suit is brought by two children of Mrs. Baumgardner against all of the children in the family and other heirs to permit sale of real estate to provide funds for maintenance of the mother who is a guest at the Wolford Bible Convalescent Home. The method is being employed because the father at his death in 1933 left the property to the children and their heirs giving the mother a life interest in the estate.

The court gave approval for service of a divorce action brought by Helen V. Tressler Neill, Biglerville, against Keith Gilbert Neill at Allegheny County Workhouse. Mrs. Neill is seeking the divorce on the ground that her husband was sentenced November 22, 1960, five months after their marriage, to the Allegheny County prison for from 18 months to three years.

MOOSE PLANS ANNUAL PARTY FOR KIDDIES

Plans for the annual Christmas party for children of members of the lodge were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Gettysburg Moose Lodge at its home on York St.

The party will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, December 23, and will include a visit by Santa Claus and a half-hour show, with gifts to be given to all children up to age 12.

Plans were made to hold the annual New Year's Eve party for the members and their ladies Saturday night, December 30, with Pat Patterson's orchestra to provide the music.

Sixteen members were received at the meeting, 11 new members, four reinstatements and one a transfer from another Moose lodge. Plans were made to conduct an initiation, with the local degree team in charge, Thursday, December 21.

Past Governor John W. Sanders presented a "25-club" certificate and lapel pin to Governor Maurice W. Shindler. The pin and citation, sent by the Supreme Lodge of the Moose, marked Mr. Shindler's securing 25 members for the local lodge.

The club voted to serve free eggnog for members on December 24 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and all day New Year's Day, January 1.

The preliminary plans were announced for the annual turkey dinner for the members and ladies on January 17 and 18. As in past years, because of the large membership, the numbers will be divided into two groups with one group assigned to January 17 and the other to January 18.

Reports on the shrimp feed held November 15 showed it the largest ever held by the lodge. Seven hundred thirteen persons attended the affair.

The club voted to close at 5 p.m. on December 24 and reopen at 11 a.m. on December 26.

Saturday night an entertainment this month was announced as floor show by the Will Groff agency December 9 and 23 and by the Hall agency of Washington December 16. Orchestras for the Saturday night programs are, December 9, IV Guys; December 16, Bud Codori Quintet, and December 23, Pat Patterson.

U.S. Transports Rush Men And Material To U.N. Force Fighting Strong Katangans

By JOHN LATZ
ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—U.S. transports resumed the airlift of men and supplies today to U.N. troops battling stubbornly resisting Katanga forces.

As the fighting went into its fourth day, Katanga President Moise Tshombe charged that "cowardly and decadent" Americans had bombed schools, a church and hospital and residential areas, killing women and children. Tshombe, back in Elisabethville to direct his forces, declared Americans "send to the Congo their dollars, their planes and their diplomats — everything except their soldiers."

No U.S. planes have been engaged in combat duties in Katanga but Tshombe previously had attributed attacks by Swedish and Indian jet fighters on Katanga airfields to American planes.

HOSPITAL IS HIT
In the fighting, the Leopold Hospital for Africans was hit by 50 mortar shells during a night-long barrage, but none of the 700 patients was seriously injured.

Nurses and doctors said the shells came from a Swedish U.N. troop camp.

U.N. officials said the U.N. mortar fire was aimed at Camp Tshombe—a Katanga installation—only 800 yards from the hospital.

In London, in response to U.N. requests, the British government announced it would furnish 1,000-pound bombs for use by Indian jet fighters for defensive purposes in Katanga. The bombs may be used only against Katanga airfields, the British said.

20 PLANES AVAILABLE
The United States had six Globemasters and fourteen Hercules transports on hand in the Congo for the airlift that was temporarily suspended when one Globemaster was hit by ground fire as it came in for a landing at Elisabethville.

Read Feature Articles On JFK

It's been more than a year since John F. Kennedy's election, and nearly 11 months since he moved into the White House.

How well has he measured up to the daring, imaginative aims he set for himself in seeking the presidency? To what extent has Kennedy, the president, caught up with Kennedy, the campaigner?

To get the answers, and the material on which an objective appraisal could be based, Arthur Edson talked to scores of people who are in a position to judge, praise or to condemn.

Likewise Edson drew on his experience as a chronicler of Kennedy's 1960 campaign and as a perceptive reporter of the Washington scene.

His findings are presented in a series of five articles that help clarify the emerging picture of Kennedy. In the first, Edson examines Kennedy's image of the presidency in today's political setting. Subsequent articles will deal with Kennedy's handling of domestic problems, his relations with Congress, his performance as a leader, and his role in international affairs.

The first article will appear Monday in The Gettysburg Times.

CHARGED WITH DRAG RACING

Albert P. Laughman Jr., 29, Hanover R. 5, who is awaiting trial on a charge of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of George W. Hull, 67, Hanover R. 5, November 25, was charged with drag racing before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Thursday evening and posted $500 bond to appear for a hearing or to waive the case into court.

Snyder said that Laughman will consult with his attorneys on whether to hold a hearing on this charge or waive the hearing.

The charge followed a similar information filed by state police late Wednesday evening against John C. Bucher, 23, R. 3, who was placed in the county jail on an involuntary manslaughter charge, hit and run driving and drag racing. They allegedly were drag racing at the time of the accident on the Hanover-Cross Keys Rd. when Hull was killed as Laughman's car traveled across the left side of the highway and struck Hull's car. Hull died from a compound fracture of the skull 45 minutes after the accident.

Robert E. Dawson, who told the court he was from Utah and "hit the end of the trail here," was given a suspended sentence on a charge of defrauding a hotel-keeper. He was given 60 days in which to pay the costs and make restitution of a $72.03 hotel bill. Dawson had told a clerk at the Hotel Gettysburg that he was a U. S. Department of Interior employee here on a special assignment and thus got use of a room.

Ronald L. Leonard, York, arrested on a process November 22 for failure to keep current a support order, was released on condition he pay $7.50 a week, of which $5 is for the order and $2.50 payment on a $250 arrearage.

3 SENTENCED TO JAIL TERM ON THURSDAY

Charles E. Sprankle, 28, Waynesboro, was sentenced by the Adams County court Thursday afternoon to from nine to 18 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse on charges of burglarizing Bankert's Restaurant and the Two Mile Inn.

The sentence will date from December 2, when Sprankle was brought here from the Chambersburg jail. He is also to pay costs and make restitution totaling $143.12.

Sprankle pleaded guilty to joining two other men, John Alvin Martin Jr., Philadelphia, and James Houston Barrett, Chambersburg, in breaking into the Two Mile Inn in Germany Twp. and Bankert's Restaurant in Cumberland Twp. early on the morning of July 18, 1961. He told the court he had no intention of burglarizing the two places but went for a ride with the other two men and when they entered the places he joined them.

GETS 3 MONTHS

Harold E. Kennedy, 23, Chambersburg, formerly of Gettysburg, who had entered a plea of guilty to five charges of burglary, was sentenced to three months in the Allegheny County Workhouse starting as of December 2, the date he was moved here from the Chambersburg jail, where he had served a six-month term on a larceny charge. He was also ordered to pay the costs and make restitution.

Kennedy told the court he had not caused any damage in his series of burglaries here but merely "opened the door and reched in." At five places he took pocketbooks. They were from the homes of William R. Swisher, 106 E. Middle St.; John Hartman, Wade Ave.; Max T. Leonard, 356 York St.; Dr. Edgar Miller, Baltimore St., and Mrs. George Bender, 227 Carlisle St. In one home, he passed a person sleeping in a chair to lift a pocketbook, "FULL OF RESPECT"

Michael Francis Vendetti, of Philadelphia and Seven Stars, who entered a plea of nolo contendere to a charge of larceny of a rifle and to possession of stolen goods, was sentenced to from 30 days to one year in the county jail starting November 5 and was told he would be paroled on payment of costs. Vendetti said he had purchased the rifle, which had been stolen from a truck owned by John Wetzel, "from two Filipinos" on Lincoln Square in Gettysburg and said he had a receipt for it "which I thought gave it into my possession to do with as I desired."

State police told the court they found it strange that Vendetti mentioned nothing about a receipt until the day after he was arrested, when he produced a slip of paper. Police said they had not sent the letter to their handwriting experts but held that if they had "the answer would probably be very interesting."

Vendetti said that he had lost $50 in wages by being in jail and since he obviously had had stolen goods in his possession he would stick by his nolo contendere plea. He told the judges that he held the court in the highest respect and that "I have the greatest respect for your battlefield, the national shrine, and Mr. Lincoln, the great emancipator, and were Mr. Lincoln alive today he too would have great respect for your court."

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The wife and four children of a Du Pont executive died today in a pre-dawn fire at their palatial home in suburban Wilmington.

Mrs. Marshall A. Stephens; her daughters, Mary M., 13; Teresa Elizabeth, 9, and Loretta Ann, 5, and a son, John Philip, 7, died.

The fire was discovered by neighbors around 3:30 a.m. Firemen brought it under control quickly and brought out the mother and daughters, but artificial respiration efforts failed.

Students Storm Congo Embassies

Nearly 200 university students, shouting and waving banners saying "Down with imperialism," marched to the official residence of Premier Cyrille Adoula after shattering windows and battering diplomats' automobiles.

Adoula appeared on his doorstep and told the students to go back to their university, saying "This is a democratic country."

The swirling mob luried bricks at windows and diplomats' cars parked in front of the three embassy buildings, punctured tires and tore off embassy insignia.

But when they marched past the U.S. Embassy, just down a tree line road from the Portuguese Embassy, their shouts changed from taunts to cheers.

The photo contest was open to all students in Grades Nine through Twelve anywhere in the United States. The public is invited to see the display until December 11.

HOWARD SMITH COMING BACK TO TELEVISION

NEW YORK (AP)—Howard K. Smith, whose long association with CBS was terminated abruptly a few weeks back, expects to be back on network television before long, the three networks may be interested to learn.

"I'm in the process of negotiating about a show," Smith said, "but I'm talking to a sponsor, not a network."

Smith said his break with CBS news came because he wanted to handle his job "as it had been handled for 20 years," meaning with freedom to express his own viewpoints.

FREE-LANCE WORK

Meanwhile, Smith is doing some free-lance jobs—he will narrate a series of educational TV shows and is now off to Berlin to make a TV documentary on the East-West situation there. The show is part of the exploitation of a film, "Judgment at Nuremberg," and will be distributed free to TV stations—in exchange for the built-in plugs for the movie, of course.

Although Smith said he considered television "a marvelous educational instrument," he added he was not interested in moving into that area except on a free-lance basis.

"I'm more interested in talking on television to adults, and that means commercial TV," he declared.

Recommended weekend viewing: Tonight: "Come Again to Carthage," CBS, 10-11 (Eastern Standard Time)—An original drama by Robert Crenan, with Maurice Evans, Piper Laurie and Ann Harding.

TO AID PROBE OF VOTE FRAUD

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department will cooperate in an investigation of alleged voting frauds in York County in the Nov. 7 election.

Atty. Gen. David Stahl promised cooperation with York County authorities after Dist. Atty. Frank A. Boyle said state assistance is necessary because of inadequate numbers of personnel to handle the situation locally.

Boyle also said state participation would assure a smooth turnover of office when he leaves his post next month. Boyle, a Democrat, did not seek re-election. Republican Daniel W. Shoemaker was elected to succeed him.

Stahl said Thursday he had not yet received Boyle's formal request for assistance, but was familiar with the case and had discussed it with Boyle.

The York County district attorney said he had numerous affidavits testifying that votes were bought for $2 each in certain York City wards.

GIRL HUNTER FOUND SAFE

CURWENSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A 19-year-old girl deer hunter was found walking along a road today after she had been missing all night in a rugged area of Clearfield County.

A search party spotted Miss Linda Bumbarger of Clearfield coming from a hunting camp about 10 miles north of here. She was unharmed. She said she spent the night alone at the camp and built a fire to keep warm.

Miss Bumbarger was reported lost when she failed to return to her hunting party Thursday evening. Search parties looked for her throughout the night.

She went hunting with four young men, including her boy friend, in the Greenwood Twp. area about six miles north of here.

3 SENTENCED

Paroles granted

Clair D. Shultz, Biglerville R. 2, who had been sentenced to three months in jail for driving after his operator's license had been suspended, was let out of jail a few days early—his three months would have been up December 16—on recommendation of Sheriff Dawson Miller who said that "he has been a very good boy, he helped us in all kinds of work." The court, in setting Shultz free on payment of costs, said, "We want to make it clear that we are doing this only on the sheriff's recommendation and not because of your father."

Louie Fred Spence, of Bendersville and Florida, who had been sentenced October 23 to from one month to a year on a charge of driving a car without the owner's consent, was placed on parole for one year and given 60 days in which to pay the costs.

Russell E. Black, N. Stratton St., who had been sentenced in June to from six to 12 months on a forgery charge, was placed on parole for one year and told to work out a schedule for paying the costs with the probation officer. Sheriff Miller told the court Black has "worked seven days a week around the jail, he was a very good prisoner and very helpful."

3 MORE PAROLES

Edward W. Wetzel, in jail on a process for failure to pay costs on a charge of assault and battery was paroled for three months and told to pay the costs in that time.

Robert Reese, Gettysburg, in jail on a process for failing to pay costs on a charge of driving during suspension, was paroled for four months on condition he pay each month one-fourth of the fine and costs of $126.75.

Francis Fogle, Fairfield, in jail for failure to pay a fine and costs, was placed on parole for one year on condition he pay the fine and costs in nine months.

EASE JAIL CROWDING

The release of the number of prisoners helped to reduce the population at the jail from 41 Thursday morning to 29 this morning. The jail has room for only 10 prisoners in its cells and when 41 were there one had to sleep on a cot in the cell block.

The court Thursday also granted amendment of the return date on a petition for rule to open satisfaction brought in the case of Hillcrest Memorial Gardens versus Clyde F. and Carolyn M. Myers from December 11 to January 22 when another similar case is scheduled to come before the court, thus permitting both to be heard at the same time.

Milder Saturday, turning cooler on Sunday and again near end of period. Precipitation may total six-tenths of an inch or more over north and west portions of southeastern New York and eastern Pennsylvania ranging mainly over higher elevations as scattered snow flurries over weekend and as more general rain with snow in higher elevations on Tuesday.

Out Of The Past

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Railroad And Mail Buses Are Out; Lights On: Lights and train service were back to normal in Gettysburg today, following the lifting of the federal regulations which imposed a dimout and curtailed freight and passenger service because of the coal strike.

Electricians of the Metropolitan Edison company began cutting the Christmas lights on Center Square and other downtown business streets into the regular power supply today, and the gasoline motor and electric generator brought here last week from Camp Hill was to be returned to the L. B. Smith company, from which it was obtained to furnish emergency current for the Christmas street lighting.

Two Injured In Blast At Greenstone: Two miners were injured, one seriously, in an explosion at the Funkhouser plant at Greenstone about 2 o'clock last Friday afternoon.

The injured are Harold Carson, 42, and C. B. Hardman, 40, both of nearby Fountaindale. Both suffered from shock and lacerations of the face and hands.

The attending physician said that both Hardman and Carson are likely to lose the sight of an eye. Hardman suffered extensive injury to the right eye and Carson, extensive injury to the left.

Father And Son Again Elected President And Chief Of Fire Company: The Gettysburg Fire Company, with more than 50 members in attendance, the largest number at a meeting in several years, Wednesday night re-elected James B. Aumen president of the company and James A. Aumen, chief, adopted a resolution thanking the local lodge of Moose for the iron lung which it donated to the firemen, received reports on the progress being made in obtaining new equipment, including an aerial ladder truck, and enrolled active members of the company in a fire school to be held here after the first of the year.

College Asks $500,000 For New Buildings: Gettysburg College's campaign to raise a minimum of $500,000 for the expansion of building facilities swung into full stride this week. Ten thousand illustrated brochures have been printed for distribution.

Plans call for the raising of funds for the erection of a new chapel, a girls' gymnasium, a new dormitory for women and modern infirmary. In addition, it is planned to modernize the Eddie Plank memorial gymnasium for men.

1,000 Moose, Ladies At Dance, Floor Show: Over 1,000 Moose and their ladies attended the program held Friday night at the Moose home on York street when a floor show was presented in connection with the regular Friday night dance.

Because of the apparent success of the program which included a master of ceremonies, contortionist, tap dancer and singer, the entertainment committee announced plans to hold a similar floor show next Friday night with performances at 9 and 11:30 o'clock.

Jr. Red Cross Gathers 1,100 For Christmas: Children in the Adams county schools have already turned in more than 1,100 Christmas toys, favors and gifts to be distributed to such places as the Elizabethtown Children's Hospital, Paradise Protectors, Hoffman's orphanage, veteran's hospitals and the county home. Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, Adams County Junior Red Cross secretary, announced today.

At the same time she urged those schools which have not yet turned in their toys to send the articles to the Red Cross Office.

During the 36-year period from 1910 to 1940, the population center of the United States moved westward slowly. The six centers were all in Indiana, four of them crowded together.

Today's Talk

TO BE STRONG
I am sure that many of us form the wrong idea of happiness in this world. It isn't to have everything come our way, to have soft cushions to sit upon, and to have people pin flowers on our coat lapels.

Happiness isn't to have money, wealth, fame, or multiple friends. Happiness is that something which springs from our heart, when the realization comes over us that we have been strong.

No matter how much we speculate upon the meaning of life and what it represents, we always come back to but two certainties — birth and death. Perhaps, after all, these two great facts of life mean but one and the same thing. Perhaps our personality is but a melting of the preciousness of love which the most insignificant of human beings carries about with him in lesser or greater degree.

Love is always strong. And it is the only permanent thing in this world worth striving for or worth giving away.

Whenever we get a clear conception of God, we imagine a being who is very strong, who emphasizes the idea that comes to us of Him, that He is the one of all who is always strong and who puts strength into us.

So then, we must try and remember that we were not put into this world to use our time in hunting for happiness but rather to build in us a structure that shall represent strength distributed into substantial service to others.

All my life I have liked to do things for people just to get the "Thank you!" And I know I am no different than all others of flesh and blood.

The great big world lifts its chin higher every time you say — "Thank you."

The strong people are always the appreciative ones who see beauty and loveliness of service every time it comes their way, and who try to give it back in fuller measure.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Training"

Just Folks

THE UPRIGHT PIANO
When Sister May and Sister Jen were single girls, how oft I've seen them reading books at which

My father always scoffed. And every time he found a book with yellow paper cover, He'd burn it up and leave the girls

In doubt about the lover.

This led the girls to strategy, And so they always hid The Duchess's works and Laura Jean's

Beneath the upright lid. Full many a novel on the strings Of our piano lay, All undiscovered, till the night That father tried to play.

Since both the girls are married now, With daughters of their own, I wonder if they're puzzled at The piano's brassy tone.

I wonder if they've both forgot Their hiding place of old; I wonder, too, what tales of love That upright could unfold.

PRESIDENT OF ISLAND NATION WILL NOT QUIT

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Expectations of political peace in the Dominican Republic suffered a jolt Thursday night as the government rejected a new opposition plan for a ruling junta to replace President Joaquin Balaguer.

Crowds hopeful of a break in the weeks-old crisis surged through downtown streets a few hours earlier as reports circulated that Balaguer had agreed to step down in favor of a provisional ruling council proposed by the National Civic Union, the leading opposition group.

CALLS INADMISSIBLE

But a government announcement after a 2½-hour meeting attended by Balaguer and Dominican military chiefs called the opposition plan "inadmissible" and offered a new government proposal to retain Balaguer in the top government post.

Informed sources said the rejected Civic Union plan provided for Balaguer's resignation before Dec. 31 and for a provisional seven-man council to take over the government and try to install democracy in this nation ruled by the late Dictator Rafael Trujillo for 31 years.

The opposition proposal also called for constituent assembly elections Aug. 16, election of a Congress Dec. 1, 1962, and installation of a new government Jan. 26, 1963.

CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS

Informants said the opposition also demanded replacement of Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavaria, named armed forces chief by Balaguer last month after the general helped crush an attempted Trujillo coup.

Balaguer said that negotiations would continue, but Civic Union officials said they considered that the talks had been terminated.

A general strike which has shut down virtually all shops and businesses throughout the nation continued Thursday for the 10th day.

Murtaugh Has Easy Time With Speeches

PITTSBURGH (AP)—What a difference a year makes.

After the Pittsburgh Pirates had won the 1960 National League pennant, Manager Danny Murtaugh received more than 100 invitations to appear at affairs during the winter.

And after the Pirates won the 1960 World Series, the Murtaughs lost track of the invitations—there were so many.

This year, a few days before the season ended, Murtaugh said he would have a quiet winter at home in Chester, Pa. He had received only three invitations for the winter.

"THE EYES TELL"

Eyes hold the deepest secrets... they tell of many things... in them we find the answers if... a heart laughs, cries or sings... eyes are the keys to nature... they reflect hidden thought... showing the inner battles... which each of us has fought... when waves of troubles toss us... on stormy seas of life... the eyes are living mirrors... which cast shadows of strife... it's much the same when happiness... is our own to share... eyes show the world a person... who journeys free of care... 'twas ever thus and will be so... until the last notes fade... only the eyes can truthfully tell... the weak, strong, or afraid.

The first planes to take off from Leopoldville at dawn today, as the airlift resumed, carried 200 Irish troops. Malay armor cars were being brought in on some of the nine flights planned for the day.

As Gen. Sean MacKeown, the Irish commander of U.N. forces, flew here from Leopoldville for a firsthand survey of the situation, U.N. officials acknowledged that the Katangans seemed to be holding their own against the smaller but better equipped U.N. force.

SNIPING INCREASED

Katangans seemed to be increasing their mortar and sniping fire on U.N. positions on the outskirts, particularly the U.N. headquarters and its nearby Gurkha camp.

Tshombe returned during the night from his private visit to Paris to take up personal direction of the fight. He flew to neighboring Northern Rhodesia and drove from there to Elisabethville with a small escort of soldiers.

G-burg Tops Susquehanna 70-60 For 3rd Straight; Faces Albright At Reading

Gettysburg College recorded its third win of the young season and its 12th in a row as the Bullets defeated Susquehanna, 70-60, before a packed house of 1,200 at Central High School, York, in a benefit for the York Sertoma service club.

Ron Warner, who consistently gives fine exhibitions, came up with one of his best before his home town fans and scored 29 points on 11 field goals and seven for seven fouls. It was Warner who kept the Bullets in the game for the first five minutes as he scored the first nine points for Gettysburg.

The score was tied seven times in the first half and it was not until the 15:47 mark that Gettysburg went ahead for keeps. The Crusaders kept threatening throughout, however, and at the 12:25 mark of the second half trailed by only five points.

Susquehanna took a 3-0 lead after 45 seconds as Bill Moore landed a field goal and foul. Warner notched three quick baskets to put the Bullets ahead 6-3. Moore and Clark Mosier scored from the field for the Crusaders while Warner added a foul and field goal. Simpson's foul made the score 10-7 at 5:03.

BULLETS MOVE AHEAD

Joe Billig's long set shot, Mosier's foul and Tom McCarrick's three-point play gave Susquehanna a 13-10 lead at 7:41 and Gettysburg called time out. The score changed hands frequently until Bob Parker sank one of two free tosses to put the Bullets ahead for good, 23-27. The half ended with Gettysburg ahead, 36-31.

Coach Bob Hulton's cagers got away to a quick start in the second half and led by 14, 47-33, after 4:40. Susquehanna could never catch up although narrowing the spread to five points at 56-51.

Parker played another fine game for Gettysburg. Earl Little, who has been used sparingly was inserted by Coach Hulton midway through the first half and played the remainder of the game. While he failed to score, he added rebounding strength and handled the ball well.

Bill Moore with 17 points and Clark Mosier with 16 paced the Crusaders who are now 2-2 for the season.

Gettysburg, whose opposition has been getting better with every game, will face a stern challenge at Reading on Saturday night when the Bullets play Albright.

Rams Place 2 Men On NAIA Team

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — West Chester State College of Pennsylvania has placed two players on the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' 1961 All-Star football team.

Named to the first team offensive unit Thursday was fullback Joe Iacone while teammate Jim Pribula was named as a halfback on the first team defensive unit. Pribula is equally effective on offense.

One other Pennsylvania college was represented. Guard James Brunza of Wilkes College was named to the offensive second team.

EAGLES MUST PLAY DEFENSE

By GEORGE ESPER
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Like many of the Philadelphia Eagles, defensive tackle Ed Khayat figures it this way: to defeat the New York Giants Sunday you have to beat them at their own game—defense.

"This is it, the whole thing," Khayat said today in looking ahead to the big National Football League clash which could lead to the Eastern Conference crown. The Eagles and Giants are tied for the lead with 9-3 marks.

Khayat, who played an outstanding game in the defending champion Eagles' big victory over Pittsburgh last Sunday which gave them new life, summed it up this way:

"I think our offense can score a lot. Our defense will have to stop them to win the game. I think they have a lot better offensive team than in recent years even when they won the title in 1958 and the Eastern title in 1958 and 1959."

"Del Shofner (end) has helped them a lot. Y. A. Tittle (quarterback) is a big help. Alex Webster is having one of his best years."

In their battle at New York last month the Giants beat the Eagles 38-21 with Shofner, Tittle and Webster all having a hand in the victory.

The 6-4, 240-pound Khayat, who played regularly in helping the Eagles to the NFL championship last season, had been used sparingly after the first few games this year. The former Tulane standout saw very little action in the Giants' game but after a subsequent loss to Cleveland, Coach Nick Skorich inserted him back into the starting lineup in a defensive shakeup.

Scholastic Coaches Want Grid Headgear Modified

HARRISBURG (AP) — Football headgear should be modified to improve its safety, a poll of Pennsylvania high school football coaches disclosed.

The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA) Thursday reported the results of a coaches poll on the question of equipment safety. The association is the governing body of public high school sports in the state outside of Philadelphia.

Commented Executive Director Mark Funk:

"I think the most important suggestions for improving equipment are, first, that helmets should be made of a more resilient material.

REDESIGN FACE GUARDS
"Second, the face guards should be redesigned, perhaps shortened and placed close to the face.

"Third, the chin strap should be devised to release at determined pressures.

"Fourth, the back of the helmet should contain sponge rubber padding and allow for a yielding area."

Funk said the poll also indicated that there is a need for better physical conditioning of players, improvement of coaching techniques and stricter rules about grabbing masks, use of the forearm to the face and head, piling on and tackling out of bounds.

215 PARTICIPATED
In the poll 215 coaches cited grasping the face mask of an opponent as a major problem. Twenty-nine coaches said they did not consider it a major problem.

Checked by 164 coaches was "face mask contributing to injury of wearer."

"Use of hands during offensive blocking" was cited by 125 coaches.

Asked about the need for soft covering on pads, 217 coaches and 295 officials checked "Yes," while 149 coaches and 50 officials said "No." The officials were not asked to vote on the questions about equipment.

ONLY ONE FATALITY
There was one fatality in Pennsylvania scholastic football this year and several in high schools and college around the nation.

Funk said he believed the increasing opposition among Pennsylvania high school coaches to the face protector is due to the increased number of fatalities.

"Let us keep in mind, however," he said, "that we used the same type of equipment for the past number of years and we have had a range of fatalities from the lowest in history to the highest."

The question also was put to the coaches whether they favored a rule making it mandatory for all players to wear a tooth and mouth protector. Eighty-seven said "No," but 218 said "Yes."

BILHEIMER IS RECIPIENT OF ECAC AWARD

Clayton E. Bilheimer, former athletic director at Gettysburg College, was presented the James Lynch Memorial Award Thursday evening at the dinner of the 25th annual Eastern College Athletic Conference at Hotel Manhattan, New York City.

The award, presented for the fifth time, is given annually to an athletic administrator who has contributed outstanding service to eastern athletics.

Bilheimer, who now resides in Plymouth, N. H., is a graduate of Lehigh University where he participated in varsity football and baseball. Following graduation and graduate study at Columbia Teachers College he coached sports with outstanding success at York High School and at York College Institute. He was a professor of physical education and athletic director of Gettysburg College 1927 through 1953. When Gettysburg College organized its department of physical education he became its first chairman of that department.

He was closely identified with the ECAC, NCAA and Middle Atlantic Collegiate Athletic Conference in his almost 50 years of service as player, coach, official and athletic administrator. He was a member in 1938 of the Executive Committee of the Central Office for Eastern Intercollegiate Athletics, the predecessor of the ECAC, and was chairman of the NCAA College Committee 1938-1940, 1951-1953, and also served on the NCAA Council.

Bilheimer laid the framework for recognition of small college activities when this committee was formed at the NCAA Convention in 1938 at New Orleans and as chairman for the second time Mr. Bilheimer laid the foundation for the structure and activities of the present NCAA College Committee.

He was past president of the Middle Atlantic Collegiate Track and Field Association and winner of its merit award; past president of the Middle Atlantic Collegiate Athletic Conference and winner of its merit award, and serve as past president of the Middle Atlantic Football Association and Wrestling Association.

Representing Gettysburg College at the sessions and attending the dinner were Henry T. Bream, athletic director; Eugene Haas, football coach, and Bobby Kenworthy, sports publicist.

NEW PRESIDENT
Ernie McCoy, Penn State athletic director, was named as president of the association for 1962.

The Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America (ICAA), meeting in conjunction with the ECAC, set March 9 for its indoor track championships in Madison Square Garden. The group set May 31-June 1 for its outdoor meet at Randall's Island.

The IC4A also decided that the cross-country championships here next November 19 would be run for the first time in major college and small college divisions.

PANEL EXPERT MAKES MOVIES IN SPARE TIME

By BOR THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Attention, Kitty Carlisle, Johnny Carson, Betty White and others of "To Tell the Truth": I've got news for you about your panel-mate, Tom Poston.

He's out here making this movie, see. What kind of a movie? I watched one scene, and this may give you a clue.

Tom goes to shut the window in a rainstorm. Standing right outside is Julia Meade, nude.

FLESH COLORED SUIT

That's right—the same Julia Meade who gets all dressed up to sell those things on Ed Sullivan's show. Only now she wasn't dressed up. Not at all.

To tell the truth, the whole thing was more innocent than it seemed. I think, Miss Meade was actually covered in a flesh-colored bathing suit. "I'd rather have the fans see me in the nude than in this dreadful outfit," she said with curious logic.

The movie was not part of Hollywood's nude wave, but a new comedy called "Zotz."

What's "Zotz?"

"Zotz is the magic word which gives me special power when I hold the sacred coin," Poston explained. Misuse of that power had just caused a lightning storm that removed Miss Meade's clothing in the scene I witnessed. That's why she was out in the rain with her clothes off.

The film is a project of William Castle, the man who gave the movie world electrified theater seats, floating skeletons and other scare gimmicks, along with his movies. The agile Castle now is delving into supernatural comedy.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The man was tall, ruggedly handsome, and at the age of 26 he had decided he was the world's worst automobile salesman.

Acting on a hunch, he went into a London film company's office and said: "I want to act!"

Instead of being thrown out on his ear, the young man was given a job as an extra. Then he became a stand-in.

Now, after acting some 400 roles in movies and on stage and television, Michael Rennie is a top star in all three fields.

Rennie, an ex-Royal Air Force pilot, is a master of suavity as an actor. In person he is cheerfully blunt and forceful, and not at all averse to expressing his opinions.

STILL ANIMALS

For example, he believes implicitly in trusting in one's hunches.

"Although we've intellectualized ourselves a long way," he said, "we are still animals—and animals have guiding instincts, or hunches."

"Unfortunately, we don't follow them enough. We reason too much and waver. We have lost the ability to trust in our hunches and act on them."

"I believe in first impressions. They are rarely wrong. Whenever I failed to follow a hunch in my life, usually I regretted it later."

Rennie is convinced his comparatively late start as an actor was a help rather than a handicap.

"I don't see how people much younger than 26 can portray emotions they have never experienced or characters they have never encountered," he said. "The older you are the more life has prepared you to become an actor."

He believes maturity also is likely to endow a performer with solid standards of his own "to withstand those of Hollywood—" ed for a warm towel, and Poston paused to discuss his new career.

"This is not my first movie in the strict sense of the word," he commented. "I did a movie in Chicago some years ago. It was called 'The City That Never Sleeps' (Republic, 1933), but I don't suppose that anybody saw it."

The sleepy-eyed comic is an alumnus of the old Steve Allen Show, and he admits that it did the most to make him famous.

"More movies? I'd like to. But first I've got to do a pilot for a TV series by S. J. Perelman. It sounds promising," Poston and Perelman—it sure does.

Needlecraft

by Alice Brooks

Look close! One block creates TWO effects when you arrange the materials differently.

and they have some very odd standards in that neck of the woods."

Rennie's view of the American film capital, where he spent seven years, is somewhat less than flattering.

"Everybody in Hollywood—from the top on down—is terrified of something. Fear is an even more prevalent emotion there than sex."

"They are the most insecure people in the world, mostly because they lacked security before they came there."

"Most of them have forgotten how to give an honest answer. Before giving you a truthful opinion they glance over both shoulders to see if anyone else is watching or listening."

Here is Rennie's own idea of personal security:

"To be secure you have to be contented as a person, and by that I don't mean you should become a cabbage."

"The discontent of most people is a result of trying to keep up with the Joneses. As long as you set your standards by someone else, you're bound to be discontented—because you'll pick someone who has something you don't have."

"You have to pick your own standards and live by them. You have to be what you think you are—not dependent on what others say or think of you."

And follow those hunches!

est rates to 4 per cent to conform with a new national limit.

In a statement issued Thursday the department said it "will give consideration to the condition and earnings of every state bank."

The department is under pressure to raise the present 3 per cent ceiling because of a federal government increase in the ceiling on savings deposits in national banks to 4 per cent. The federal government presently has a 3 per cent limit. The new ceiling goes into effect Jan. 1.

Pennsylvania savings banks and savings and loan institutions already are permitted higher rates, ranging up to 4 per cent.

It is expected that banking secretary Robert L. Myers Jr.'s decision on the state and national banks will be affected to some degree by action taken in neighboring New York.

There was no indication when the Pennsylvania department would make its decision.

The 236 state banks and the approximately 430 national banks in Pennsylvania are subject to the State Banking Department's ceiling.

NO STAND BY AMA ON ILGWU

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Medical Society has declined to take a stand in a controversy over use of mail-order prescriptions in the Commonwealth.

The society said Thursday it had found nothing illegal in operation of a mail-order drug clinic by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

However, Dr. Daniel H. Bee of Indiana, president of the society, called attention to a resolution adopted by the American Medical Association at its 1960 convention. The resolution stated that mail-order drugs generally are "not in the best interest of the patient (because) . . . the direct personal relationship which exists between the patient, physician and pharmacist at the community level and which is essential to the public health and welfare of the patients . . ."

The union maintains that a service offering low cost drugs to its members is necessary because of what it feels are high prices for drugs.

All Get Clean Slate At Xmas Says Minister

By REV. OTTO KROEGER
Pastor, Zion Lutheran Church
Fairfield

"A CLEAN SLATE"

The words "a clean slate" are certainly familiar to many of us. They refer to the writing boards of slate that students used to carry. Functionally their importance was in the fact that they could be used over and over again and if the scholar made a mistake, he could simply erase it and start over again. Well, life for the Christian is not unlike a slate, in that God in His forgiveness is always giving us a fresh start.

A long time ago there was a group of people who were held captive by another nation. This captive group was in a great deal of trouble. It was depressed, bitter, self-centered, and completely void of trust in its fellowman. It even distrusted its very own leaders and as a result the captivity of the Jews was a very bitter experience. But one day, God, because He loved this group and not because it had earned anything, came to this group in Egypt, erased its past, and gave it a clean slate by leading the Jew out of captivity into the wilderness. And to show them He meant what He said, He put His covenant in writing for them at Mt. Sinai. But the nation Israel's slate was not clean for long and the people did what was evil in the sight of the Lord. However, because God loved Israel, He came to this nation, erased its past, gave it a clean slate and led it to the promised land.

"THINGS WERE GREAT"

In the promised land things were great. In fact the nation rose to a new height in power. It became so powerful that it felt it could get along without God. As a result, the people put their faith in their own power. They trusted their weapons, their leaders, and their country's foreign policies much more than they did God. The nation soon split and was continually on the verge of being overthrown by a foreign power. From time to time there would be a religious reform and the people would return to God's way, only to leave this way for a life of self-direction. It was on the heels of one of these great religious reforms that the prophet Jeremiah came preaching.

Knowing the nation's history and knowing what God had done for them in the past, he calls them to repentance and tells them that God will make a new covenant with them which He shall write upon their hearts. They shall no longer have to teach each other about the Lord because they shall all know the Lord from the least to the greatest and God will give them a clean slate all over again by forgiving their iniquity and remembering their sin no more. This was the promise of the Lord that came through Jeremiah.

GET CLEAN SLATE

But alas, you know the story all too well. The people did not listen and, even though God continually forgave them, they continually fell away from God. Finally when the people just would not listen to anyone else, God came Himself through Christ. We celebrate this coming during the Advent season. It is not by accident that the Advent season is the beginning of the church year and Christmas itself comes very close to the beginning of the calendar year. You see, in Christmas everyone gets a clean slate and therefore we should use Advent to prepare for it. It's somewhat like a woman would prepare for a new birth . . . because that's what it is to us . . . in that the expectant mother makes ready by reading, resting and rebuilding, her strength. Now is the hour for the Christian to prepare for Christ. Read your Bible daily! Do it at the dinner table as a family; it will be a refreshing experience. Read and get ready. Spend some time in rest, prayerful rest. Don't come to Christmas morn all tired out and weary because you did not prepare yourself with prayerful rest. In all the hustle and bustle of our commercial Christmas, stop a few minutes each day to rest and pray that you may rebuild your hearts and minds in the true spirit of Christmas.

God has come time and time again and given everyone a fresh start on life. He always comes and forgives. If God has been crowded out of your life, now, this Advent, take time for Him that He may make your life a clean slate.

"And no longer shall each man teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying 'Know the Lord' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity and I will remember their sin no more."

Jeremiah 31:34

In all kinds of weather...

How many times have we walked to church in the snow together . . . and in the rain . . . and in all kinds of weather?

I don't think we've ever stayed home on a Sunday because we were afraid we might get our feet wet. To me, this would be like answering a dinner invitation by saying you couldn't make it unless the sun were shining.

The Church, after all is God's House, and in it I've always felt that I was both a member of the household, and an invited guest.

In this House, you and I have found not only a deeper understanding of each other, but the ability to be tolerant of faults, to forgive and forget smaller angers, and — most important of all — to resolve to try again tomorrow. And this is but a small part of all the Church has given us, and of all that it stands ready to give everyone, everywhere.

ASSIGN WAVE LINE OFFICER ON TRANSPORT

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A trim, businesslike brunette boards a ship today to become the first woman ever assigned to sea duty as a line officer of the U.S. Navy.

She's hazel-eyed Lt. Charlene I. Suneson, 27, who recalls that her feminine feat "all began at a cocktail party in San Diego."

Miss Suneson, a WAVE for the past seven years, guesses she'll be assigned to the transportation division aboard the USS W. A. Mann when she reports for duty. The big transport ship is set to begin an 18-month Pacific cruise.

Miss Suneson says she's more interested in military life than cocktail parties but tells how her Navy career started with a social slip.

"I was talking to a captain and I mentioned I would like to go to sea. And he said he could arrange it for me," says the trim officer.

She got a fleeting taste of Navy life earlier this month on a radar picket ship tied up at Treasure Island. She emerged from the experience with confidence.

"I have met the captain of the Mann and the executive officer. I'm sure everything will work out all right," she said.

SEEKS POWER FOR CONTROL OF KATANGA

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Bolstered by U.S. support, Acting Secretary-General U. Thant today sought wider approval for his sweeping new plan to bring the breakaway Congo province of Katanga under United Nations control.

U.N. sources said Thant would submit the plan to his Congo advisory committee before making it public.

Thant disclosed earlier that the plan aims at carrying out U.N. resolutions on the Congo, including the Security Council's directive of Nov. 24 authorizing him to use force if necessary to expel from Katanga the estimated 200 foreign mercenaries serving with President Moise Tshombe's army

OUTLINES PLAN

Thant outlined the plan Wednesday night in a 50-minute briefing at U.N. headquarters with Adlai E. Stevenson, the chief U.S. delegate to the U.N.; G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, and Edmund A. Gullion, U.S. ambassador to the Congo.

"The United States is very pleased with the plan of the secretary-general to bring Katanga under control," Stevenson said.

A U.S. spokesman said the plan included use of force to end the fighting in Katanga and a blueprint of action designed to restore peace throughout the Congo.

The U.S. airlift to Elisabethville was suddenly suspended Thursday when Katanga troops fired small arms at a Globemaster as it came in over Tshombe's presidential villa for a landing at the Elisabethville airport. Several bullets penetrated the fuselage but caused no serious damage. A report from Leopoldville, the Congo capital, said the U.S. government had agreed to the airlift on condition that full protective cover could be supplied, and Air Force commanders in the Congo were consulting with Washington to determine whether the airlift should continue.

Cables from Sture Linner, chief U.N. representative in the Congo, kept Thant abreast of the military action in Katanga. A U.N. spokesman said Linner's reports indicated the U.N. operation was going well.

grooming habits. And it's a sadness, for scrupulous attention to the details of grooming would make a beauty of her. Even a really plain woman appears lovely when she is flawlessly turned out.

Superior grooming is never a hit-or-miss affair, but it is based on an efficient plan. If you would appear your best on holiday rounds, now is the moment to plot your grooming course. Suggestions for a good one follow:

- Block out time for the shampoo and sets that you will require before the New Year. In fixing dates, remember that hair usually is prettiest one or two days after a "do."

- If a permanent, tint or touch-up is in order, make haste to have it. Perms benefit from "aging." Coloring should never be put off until the need becomes apparent.

- Make certain at once that you have a full supply of cosmetics, manicure equipment and hair-grooming aids. Book desired salon manicures pronto.

- So that your skin has extra glow, give it extra daily care. Double up on whatever treatments make it bloom—sundings, creamings, masks.

- As necessary, re-set your hair, mend chipped polish, and defuzz. Keeping up with repairs is both a time and beauty saver.

- If you are ever tempted to slight a rite, just remember: Lovely women and perfect grooming are synonymous. The toast of this and any other season!

PREDICT MORE MUSIC, CARDS AT CHRISTMAS

By MARY CAMPBELL

NEW YORK (AP)—"It is my prediction that there will be more Christmas music in the churches, on the radio and on TV this Christmas than ever before," says Dr. Jesse M. Bader, general secretary of the World Convention of Churches of Christ (Disciples).

"Why? Because our world needs the Christ of Christmas now more than ever. Today America is called upon to make Him central and not marginal."

Dr. Bader predicted further: "There will be more window displays with Christmas scenes and more carol singing in communities across our land. There will be a much greater exchange of appropriate religious Christmas cards."

MORE XMAS CARDS

On the latter point, the Greeting Card Association already is able to say that Dr. Bader is correct.

This year three billion Christmas cards will go through the mail, the association says, and approximately 30 per cent will be religious in design and message. Ten years ago about 10 per cent were religious in theme. The increase has been steady throughout the decade.

This year brief and simple messages inside religious cards are used more often than, but not to the exclusion of, poems, Scripture passages and prayers.

The Madonna and Child is the most popular design for the religious cards, as it was last year and has been since 1949. This year Madonnas are depicted on 16.2 per cent of the religious cards. Manager scenes, which ranked second in 1960, are a somewhat closer second this year—15.5 per cent.

2 UNION HEADS ARE INDICTED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two Teamsters officials have been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges they collected money from trucking companies to finance the legal defense of another union officer.

Named as co-defendants Wednesday in the seven-count indictment were Lawrence J. Mullen, 57, secretary-treasurer of Local 161, and Joseph Westenberg, an organizer for Local 107.

The two men were accused of soliciting funds from employers to help defray legal expenses of Raymond Cohen, secretary-treasurer of Local 107, one of the largest locals in the Teamsters Union.

The indictment charges violation of the Taft-Hartley Law ban on union officials receiving money from employers of their union members.

The indictment was handed up to U.S. District Judge Thomas J. Clary, who signed bench warrants for Mullen and Westenberg. He set bail at $5,000 for each.

The structure will be built privately and then leased to the government. The contract will go to the bidder offering the most favorable rental terms, the department said.

He set bail at $5,000 for each.

DEAR SANTA, MAYBE WE CAN MAKE A DEAL

NEW YORK (AP) — "Dear Santa: Maybe we can make a deal."

That is the tone of one letter among more than 2,000 addressed to Santa Claus and received thus far by the New York Post Office. In the "deal" category, one little girl writes:

"I want a hairdresser doll. It costs $11.98. Will you pay for half of it? My daddy can't pay for it all. I made four A's in school."

Some children write that they only want some extra food at Christmas — or just one doll, even a second-hand one. Or they only ask "a dress for Mommy."

Postmaster Robert K. Christenberry invited the public to browse through the letters.

OTHER LETTERS

Some are off-beat ones: "Dear Santa: I'm going to warn you fair and square so I'm going to tell you that I'm going to keep a copy of what I ask you for so I'll know if you're really a real person not a fake."

Another requested "a punching bag to make my hands fast," and signed his letter, "Your best friend."

These letters to the post office do not go unheeded. Individuals, business firms and philanthropic organizations help out each year, as does the Post Office recreation fund.

AGED HELPER OF SANTA HAS LUNG CANCER

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Albert Warnhoff spent most of his life playing Santa's helper and now he needs someone to follow in his footsteps.

Warnhoff, 72, a carpenter and lumberman, spent his last 39 years building more than 45,000 toys and sending them to boys and girls in hospitals and orphanages all over the world.

"Of the many honors I have received," he said, "the one I like best was to see the sparkle in a sick child's eyes when I gave him a toy. I feel more happy than if I had won the lottery."

Woman Indicted In Embezzlement

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A Federal Grand Jury has indicted a 25-year-old Westmoreland County woman for embezzling some $100,000 from her former employer.

The jury returned the 96-count indictment Thursday against Mrs. Anna Mary White, of Avonmore, a former employee at the First National Bank of Avonmore.

Her husband, Thomas, 41, was indicted also. The government said White knew his wife was taking the money and caused her to take it.

Mrs. White was arrested earlier this year after her resignation at the bank touched off an investigation. An employee for eight years, she was first charged with embezzling $27,603 but further investigation revealed a larger shortage.

TELLS SANTA MOMMY WANTS PEACE, QUIET

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's Christmas Santa sees some adults in their laps these days asking for Christmas treasures.

"How about a mink or a Cadillac, Santa?" said one woman Thursday as she perched on his knee, her cheek against his.

Santa, whose real name is George Ader, gave the woman an extra-heavy "ho-ho," and a few extra hugs, and after she left, said:

"Let's face it, I don't mind the girls. But those men. Some of them weigh a ton."

The change in the ages of Santa's visitors came because some of the downtown department stores rigged up cameras to take souvenir pictures of youngsters talking with Santa.

WANTS PEACE, QUIET

Now adults want pictures. Despite the adults' hounding in Cincinnati's Santas concentrate on the youngsters.

Wilbur Timme, an alternate Santa, said: "I wish parents wouldn't scare children by using Santa as a threat. They tell them Santa won't like them if they do this or that."

"Then they wonder why a youngster screams with fright when he or she is brought before me."

Ader said one little girl gave him a chuckle. She said her mother had asked her to relay an urgent request to Santa.

"What does Mommy want?" asked Santa.

"Peace and quiet," said the girl.

HAS LUNG CANCER

But Santa's helper is in an Ann Arbor Hospital with lung cancer. He made only 500 toys this year. They'll be delivered to children in hospitals in the area next week.

Warnhoff retired when he turned 66 and devoted his full time to his workshop. He turned out angels, cradles, benches, rocking horses, boats, dogs that wiggle their tails—all manner of toys.

But, he says, he hasn't been able to find anyone to take over. "I'm sorry about it. There are going to be an awful lot of children without toys this year."

COUNTERFEIT TWENTIES ARE BEING FOUND

HARRISBURG (AP) — Harrisburg area storekeepers were on the lookout for counterfeit $20 bills today following a report that 13 bogus bills were passed in stores last Saturday.

The Pennsylvania Bank Association issued a special bulletin to its members Thursday advising them to watch for the fake money. Copies of New York Federal Reserve bank notes series 1950A. All of the bills passed here had the same serial number—B07822580A.

Robert C. Forrey, assistant manager of the association, said he had been advised by U.S. Treasury agent Arnold Lau of Scranton that the bogus $20 notes were part of a multimillion-dollar counterfeit ring smashed last year at Newark, N.J.

SOME $10'S TOO

Forrey said more bills may have been passed in Harrisburg last Saturday when stores were crowded with Christmas shoppers.

"Unfortunately, no person receiving the bad notes has been able to recall who passed them," said Forrey.

According to Lau, said Forrey, the same counterfeiters also made a $10 bill. None of these have been uncovered in Harrisburg.

Forrey said that federal agents estimated that a large quantity of bogus money had gotten into circulation before they hit the Newark ring.

They have been passed in the last year from New York to Florida, and included such Pennsylvania cities as Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Carlisle, Pottsville, Hazleton and Johnstown.

Chambersburg Boy Gets Crop Award

DETROIT (AP) — Donald E. Martin, 15-year-old high school sophomore of Chambersburg, Pa., was awarded top honors Thursday night in a national canning crops contest.

Young Martin was cited for his two-acre tomato crop grown in 1961. Thursday night's award ceremony concluded a four-day meeting of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, which conducted the contest under sponsorship of the National Canners Association.

Among the prizes were a gold watch and pin and a trip to Washington.

EXPECT TOUGH BOUT BETWEEN FULLMER, PARET

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The critics' consensus today was that rugged Gene Fullmer and Benny (Kid) Paret will travel the full 15-round distance in their fight Saturday night for Fullmer's share of the world middleweight championship.

Spokesmen for Fullmer, 30, from West Jordan, Utah, and his rival from Cuba, who holds the undisputed welterweight title, seemed to agree.

Fullmer is a 3-1 betting favorite.

The attraction goes on in the Las Vegas Convention Center at 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time with the ABC television cameras tuned in for a national audience.

Fullmer is a 3-1 betting favorite.

At stake will be his National Boxing Association crown. It will be his seventh defense since he won the title from Carmen Basilio in San Francisco Aug. 28, 1959.

Paret's welterweight title will not be at stake. As far as the Nevada State Athletic Commission is concerned, and apparently the NBA as well, Paret, 24, will reign over both the divisions if he beats Fullmer.

FOOD STORES' STRIKE ENDS; GET NEW PACT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A & P stores in a tri-state area closed by a seven-day strike of some 1,000 meat department employees will reopen Monday following approval of a new 27-month contract calling for an $11 weekly pay raise and other benefits.

A & P said it would wait until the first of next week to reopen, even though the union membership voted for approval Thursday.

The reason, A & P officials said, was "because we don't want to reopen halfway. We want to have every store complete in every respect."

Butchers for Acme and Food Fair stores in eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware also approved the 27-month contract and began returning at once to their jobs Thursday.

Acme and Food Fair had furloughed their butchers to maintain a solid front with A & P in bargaining.

9,000 WERE IDLED

The strike had idled an estimated 9,000 employees of the three chains in eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware and disrupted the buying habits of many in the region.

The Philadelphia Council of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and butcher workers, composed of five local unions in the area, called the membership voting meetings after a tentative agreement had been reached Wednesday night.

Under the old contract previous weekly wage scales in the meat departments of the three food chains were: meat managers and their chief cutters, $130; boxmen, $112; and weighers and wrappers, $80.

In addition to the wage increases the employees were guaranteed overtime pay for the second night and any subsequent night of overtime put in during a week.

The pact also called for three weeks vacation after the first eight years of employment instead of 10 as had been the case previously.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) May or Dominic J. DeLuco has a system for fixing parking tickets for other people—he pays them himself.

He tells people at every state and national convention he addresses that he'll take care of any tickets they get in Hartford. He says he sympathizes with their parking problems.

He figures the policy has cost him more than $140 since he put it into effect last January.

KANSAS STATE SEEN AS PICK IN BIG EIGHT

By SHELTON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

It looks like another long winter for the rest of the Big Eight Conference basketball teams. Coach Tex Winter seems to have another championship club at Kansas State.

The Wildcats have won the Big Eight crown for the past four years and are favored to repeat again. Ranked No. 8 in The Associated Press preseason poll, Kansas State served notice Thursday night that the rating was justified.

The Wildcats posted an impressive 71-60 victory over St. Louis University, a perennial Missouri Valley contender, on the Billikens' floor.

SECOND IN ROW

The triumph was the second in a row for the K-Staters who overwhelmed New Mexico 94-52 in their opener. St. Louis had captured its first two games, defeating South Dakota State and Kansas.

The Kansas State-St. Louis game was the only encounter involving any of the top ten teams. However, there were noteworthy individual performances on an otherwise sparse college basketball card.

All-American Chet Walker found the range for 31 points as Bradley romped over Northern Michigan 100-76. Little Bruce Drysdale became the seventh player in Temple history to score over 1,000 points in his career while sparking the Owls to a 90-60 triumph over Lehigh.

OTHER GAMES

Sender Jimmy Rayl hit for 21 of his 34 points in the second half in pacing Indiana to a 74-68 con-

Uphold Denial On New Radio Station

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals has upheld the Federal Communications Commission decision to deny the Guinan Realty Co., a construction permit for a radio station in Mount Carmel, Pa.

The court's decision, announced Thursday, said the Communications Commission had given "full and fair consideration" in the case.

The commission disqualified the Mount Carmel application on a finding that 22.5 per cent of the population in its proposed service area would be subjected to interference from existing station WFBF in Baltimore.

In refusing to waive its "10 per cent rule" on the interference question, the commission awarded a permit on April 12, 1960, to Louis Adelman for construction of a station on the same frequency in Hazleton, Pa.

ANACORTES, Wash. (AP)—E. Bradlee Watson, professor emeritus of English at Dartmouth College and founder of the Dartmouth Experimental Theater, died Wednesday. Watson, 82, was co-editor of "Contemporary Drama," an anthology of plays published in several editions since 1931. He taught at Dartmouth 29 years.

quest of New Mexico State. Sophomore Miles Aiken clicked for 31 points and snared 18 rebounds to lead St. Bonaventure to an 82-59 lacing of Villa Madonna. Jerry Smith clicked for 36 points—25 after the intermission—in spearheading Furman to an 84-64 drubbing of Erskine.

WALLACE HAS FIRE
SOUTH SALEM, N.Y. (AP)—Records dealing with 15 years of experimental chicken breeding by Henry A. Wallace were saved Thursday from a fire that destroyed a poultry barn on the former vice president's farm.

Wallace, who became interested in chicken breeding while U.S. secretary of agriculture, said about 1,000 chickens were lost, including many that were undergoing tests in efforts to develop chickens that will lay more eggs on less food.

An Avenue of Heroes near the main gates of Arlington Cemetery will honor outstanding Americans. The first statue which has been placed on the avenue is that of the late Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd.

Kennedy Rests In Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy claimed a day off for himself today.

The chief executive relaxed in comfort with a growing number of early season arrivals at this Florida Coast resort where the bathing beach long ago gave way to lavish estates.

He may put aside reports and papers for two excursions into town—to attend Feast of the Immaculate Conception Services at St. Edward's Church, and possibly to look over the house where he and his family will spend the Christmas holidays.

Andrew T. Hatcher, acting press secretary, said Kennedy had no schedule, official or social, for the day. He announced no appointments, and Hatcher listed his only guest as David F. Powers, a political supporter from Kennedy's first congressional campaign and now White House receptionist.

Whether Kennedy would return to Washington late today or Saturday was uncertain. The President is understood to have some work he wants to do on the budget he must propose to Congress next month.

Oral Vaccine For Polio Not Available

WASHINGTON (AP)—Public Health Service spokesmen say it is still uncertain when oral polio vaccine of all three needed types may be available in quantity.

Only two types of the easy-to-take oral, live-virus vaccine have been cleared for general use in this country.

In connection with licensing of manufacture of Type II, Surgeon General Luther L. Terry said on Oct. 10 that "large-scale immunization programs with oral polio vaccine are not considered desirable until it is possible to initiate programs with all three types of the vaccine."
